

NORFOLK LOCAL CONTINUED AND TELEGRAPH CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Dusch left last evening via the Bay Line, for New York.

Mrs. Frank Dennis, of Newport News, who has just returned from Rochester, N. Y., was the guest of Mrs. C. J. Finch, of 176 Bank street, yesterday.

Banners announcing the coming State Fair have replaced the circus banners on the wires supporting the street railway trolley wires.

The Red Men turnout yesterday at the funeral of Fireman Barrett is said to have been the largest week-day parade of Norfolk Red Men for ten years or over.

A bicycle collision occurred at noon yesterday on Main street, one of the wheels being considerably damaged.

Several of the big chiefs of this city attended the Red Men's social at Newport News last evening.

The Norfolk Light Artillery Blues will be inspected to-night at the Armory by Colonel Stern.

Mrs. Eva Barrett, widow of Mr. Thos. A. Barrett, the fireman who was fatally injured at St. Vincent's last Thursday morning, advertised for his gold watch and chain, which was lost on that occasion.

Mr. W. H. Doll left last night for Asheville, N. C., on business.

Capt. Barrow, of Richmond, Va., Assistant Adjutant-General of the State, reached Norfolk yesterday via the Chesapeake and Ohio and left in the afternoon on the Siren for New York. He will accompany the Virginia Naval Reserves and participate with them in the Dewey reception.

Mr. Watkins Norvell, press agent of the Ocean View railroad, left yesterday for Smithfield.

Mr. R. G. Barham, proprietor and editor of the Petersburg Index-Appel, spent Monday in Norfolk.

The wife of Rufus Moore, colored, who lives on Brewer street, was brought to the station house last night badly beaten about the head. She said that her husband did it, and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

UNITED STATES COURT.

EXCEPTIONS IN SWARTZ DAMAGE SUIT ARGUED.

In the United States Court yesterday Judge Waddill heard argument on the exceptions filed by the defendant in the case of Charles N. Swartz vs. the Southern Railway Company. The suit is for $25,000 for the loss of an arm by young Swartz several years ago at West Point, Va. It will probably be some time before Judge Waddill renders his decision. The points raised were argued by Mr. W. L. Wilson, counsel for the railway, and Messrs. P. J. Morris and Hugh G. Miller for the plaintiff.

The suit of James W. Corbin vs. the yacht Pocahontas, to recover $5,000 for injury, was set for October 17th.

H. F. Murden qualified as deputy clerk of the court.

The following have been discharged in bankruptcy: Cabell Davis, Charles E. Nash, Joseph Solomonsky, all of Norfolk, and John T. Bradshaw, of Southampton county.

Judge Waddill left last night for Richmond. He will return here about October 15th.

INVITED TO CHICAGO.

PROMINENT NORFOLK CITIZEN MAY ASSIST THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. Fred Greenwood, Commander of Pickett-Buchanan Camp of Confederate Veterans and President of the Select Council, has received an invitation from the Treasury Department and from the Committee on Confederate Veterans, to participate in the exercises attendant upon the laying of the corner-stone of Chicago's immense public building by President McKinley on the 9th of October. Mr. Greenwood feels highly complimented by this invitation, since the occasion gives promise of being one of the most notable of the year.

Mr. Greenwood's invitation reads "to assist the President in laying the corner-stone." It is beautifully embossed by the Bureau of Engraving for the Treasury Department. The Committee on Confederate Veterans, whose card accompanies Mr. Greenwood's invitation, is composed of twenty-six members, the chairman and secretary being Major Ramsey H. Stewart and Colonel George Forrester, respectively.

Mr. Greenwood will probably accept the invitation.

Shipping Notes.

A sloop yacht capsized in Hampton Roads Monday afternoon in the sharp squall at about 4:30 o'clock. In it were several persons, two or three (accounts differ). A small sloop, thought to belong in Hampton, was seen standing by the capsized vessel when the rain blotted out the view. It is thought the parties were all rescued. The sloop was seen, bottom up, alongside broad rock yesterday afternoon by a fisherman. Her name he could not make out.

Monday afternoon the steamer New York ran into the small schooner Courtney, Captain Shackelford, in Hampton Roads, and cut her down several streaks in her bend, beside carrying away her cutwater and bowsprit with head gear. Both proceeded, however, and yesterday the N. Y. P. & N. R. R. Co. paid Captain Shackelford $300, the full amount of damages.

Captain J. M. Crane, of 18 Shields street, returned yesterday from a pleasant trip with Mrs. Crane to Philadelphia and other Northern cities. Mrs. Crane will remain for ten days in Philadelphia, taking lessons in ladies' tailoring at McDonald's Dressmaking School and studying the fall styles.

Democratic Club Elects Officers.

The John S. Barbour Club held a meeting at their headquarters, on Penchance street, last night and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, E. H. Cunningham; Vice-President, J. Arnold Dalby; Secretary, W. R. Johnson; Treasurer, A. Lagorio. Seven new members were initiated.

In retiring from the presidency Mr. Arthur P. Jones made a short speech, thanking the club for the honors they had bestowed upon him, of which they endorsed his candidacy for the Common Council to succeed Mr. Edward Mahoney, resigned, was not least.

North Carolina's Governor Here.

Governor Daniel L. Russell and staff, of North Carolina, arrived in Norfolk yesterday en route to New York, to attend the Dewey reception. The distinguished party, after "viewing the landscape" for a short while, took the Old Dominion Line steamer en route to Gotham.

PEOPLE'S FORUM.

NOTE.—The People's Forum being freely open to all parties, classes, persons, views and capacities, the Virginian-Pilot is responsible for none of the statements nor opinions expressed therein, nor for the style in which they are set forth. The ignorant and uneducated shall be heard here equally with the learned.

Hospital Building.

Editor Virginian-Pilot: Now that this city and community is stirred by the unfortunate partial destruction of St. Vincent's Hospital, and efforts are being made to raise money by subscription to restore the building and appliances, would it not be well for the feeling to be deeper root and effort to be increased, and while the work is going on would it not be well, in addition to this $50,000 for St. Vincent's Hospital, to raise the amount necessary to help the noble women who are engaged in the good work of the Protestant Hospital?

They have labored for years, and without the encouragement and aid they have deserved.

This seems to me to be a favorable time to see what can be done to bring success to their efforts, which have been without hope of reward.

In this large Protestant community no special effort in the way of public meetings have been held and assistance proffered. It is well enough to assist the Roman Catholic institution, but in doing so let us not forget the Protestant Hospital, which is not doing the work it would do for want of sympathy and aid.

There are men and women in this community abundantly able to aid both. Let them come forward promptly with their means, not prompted by a desire for political aggrandizement or by mercenary considerations, but from love to God and suffering humanity.

It is to be hoped that in all future meetings of citizens the necessities of the Protestant Hospital will be considered with the Roman Catholic, for surely the wants and necessities of the former are as great as the latter.

CITY CONTRACTS.

MR. BARNARD WILL APPEAL TO THE COURTS.

Mr. W. H. Barnard, of W. H. Barnard & Co., has employed H. H. Rumble as counsel to sue out an injunction restraining the city from awarding work by contract or otherwise to members of the City Council or to firms in which they are directly interested.

Mr. Barnard when seen last evening by a Virginian-Pilot reporter said that he was not pulling either people's chestnuts out of the fire, neither was he a public benefactor. His interests had been crossed by city work being awarded to firms in which Councilmen are interested, and he is going to apply for injunction, he says, simply as a business matter. He says other business men whose interests have in a like manner been hurt, have asked to be allowed to join him in the court proceedings, but he prefers to work alone in the matter.

Mr. Barnard says there is a heavy penalty attached to the violation of this law, which says, in effect, that no Councilman shall do work for the city, or furnish it with supplies. It is said that the injunction will be applied for in a few days.

AMUSEMENTS.

WASHBURN'S MINSTRELS.

If you look down the list of clever people with "The Great Southern Minstrels" you'll find Lew Benedict, Sam Horner, Cool Burgess, Willie Patton, Harry Hickman, Ben Westly, Latoy, Cowley, George Meekman, Joe Higgins and Brother Billy, and they are supported by thirty singers, dancers, acrobats and instrumentalists. It is claimed to be one of the biggest minstrel organizations on the road, and a jolly, hearty laugh is promised at the Academy of Music next Friday evening.

POWER OF CONGRESS.

TO REGULATE AND CONTROL THE TRUSTS.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Washington, D. C., Sept. 26.—Attorney General Griggs has written the following reply to a letter recently received by him from Governor Pingree, of Michigan:

"I am in receipt of your letter of the 21st instant, asking me to send you a copy of my opinion to the effect that under the constitution of the United States, Congress cannot enact a law which would be effective in suppressing trusts, so-called."

"In reply, I beg to say that I have never rendered, either officially or unofficially, any opinion of this kind. On the contrary, this department has been engaged in bringing numerous suits in the United States Court under the Sherman act of July 2, 1890, entitled 'An act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies,' in several of which cases, notoriously that against the Trans-Missouri Freight Association, 166 U. S. 290, and that against the Joint Traffic Association, 171 U. S. 502, the result has been the suppression by decree of the court of the offending agreement or association."

JURISDICTION OF CONGRESS.

"You may possibly have reference to a letter of mine to a private citizen, published several months ago in the newspapers, wherein I called attention to the fact that the only jurisdiction that Congress has over combinations or contracts in restraint of trade, was in relation to those which directly affected interstate commerce. That this is true, and that this is the full extent of the Sherman trust act, you will ascertain by reading the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Hopkins vs. the United States, 171 U. S. 578, and the case of the United States vs. E. C. Knight Company, 156 U. S. 1."

WHAT CONGRESS CAN'T DO.

"You are doubtless aware that it is not the right or function of the Federal government to interfere with business transactions carried on within the several States, or between some ground expressly authorized by the constitution. Congress can regulate directly that which we understand by 'interstate commerce,' but it has no power to regulate or control business or commerce carried on wholly within the limits of a State.

"I have called your attention to these matters, not because I assume that you are ignorant of them, for you doubtless understand them well, but only in order to explain to you that I have not given, and could not possibly have given, any opinion of the purport expressed in your letter."

YELLOW FEVER REPORT.

CONDITIONS AT JACKSON AND OTHER PLACES.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Jackson, Miss., Sept. 26.—The State Board of Health this afternoon made the announcement of two new cases of yellow fever in Jackson, the patients being Mrs. Tapley and her daughter, residing on Pearl street one block from the postoffice. Very little excitement was created by the announcement.

Nearly all interior towns, however, are putting up quarantines against Jackson. Many of the railroad lines West declared one within thirty minutes after the announcement was made. Radical measures will be taken by the State Board to prevent a spread. As yet there has been no logical tracing of the foot announced.

Dr. J. J. Harrick, State Health Officer, in charge at Mississippi City, wires that thirty under treatment there, and the disease is beyond control.

The guards have been removed from the original block.

Inspector General Harrison telegraphs that he has discovered one case of yellow fever in the country five miles from Centerville, Jefferson county, in the Southern portion of the State.

The Board of Health has issued a proclamation modifying the quarantine against New Orleans so as to admit freight. The Atlanta rules and regulations adopted by the quarantine convention of 1893, and modified by the New Orleans conference of 1899, will be in force.

THE CRESCENT CITY.

New Orleans, Sept. 26.—The Board of Health to-day reported two cases of yellow fever, but no death in the past 24 hours.

KEY WEST SITUATION.

Key West, Fla., Sept. 26.—Forty-six new cases of yellow fever were reported to-day and two deaths.

GENERAL HETH DEAD.

THE OLD WARRIOR FIGHTS HIS LAST BATTLE.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Washington, Sept. 26.—General Henry Heth, the Confederate chieftain and historian, died at his home in this city at 1:40 o'clock this morning of Bright's disease. The end had been expected hourly for several weeks.

General Henry Heth was one of the most conspicuous chieftains in the Confederate service. He was a native of Virginia and born in 1825. He was graduated from West Point in 1847. On July 1st, of that year, he entered the army as a brevet second lieutenant in the First Infantry; was made second lieutenant in the Sixth Infantry in September, six years later became first lieutenant and in 1855 was made a captain in the Tenth Infantry.

With the outbreak of the civil war he allied himself with them, organizing forces of the South, tendering his resignation in the Federal army on April 25, 1861. He was immediately given a command as brigadier general in the Confederate army. In May, 1863, he was commissioned major general. He commanded a division of General A. P. Hill's corps in Virginia and rendered notable service at the battle of Gettysburg, at Chancellorsville and throughout the campaigns of 1864 and 1865. When the war closed General Heth took up his residence in South Carolina, where he engaged in business. Of late years General Heth has lived in this city and he had been chiefly occupied in literary work as an historian of the campaign in which he was a notable figure.

FUNERAL IN RICHMOND.

The funeral will be held in Richmond, Va., Thursday. His remains will be taken there to-morrow and the Confederate Veterans' Union of this city will have charge of the arrangements.

UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

A GENERAL STRIKE IN HAVANA NOT ANTICIPATED.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Havana, Sept. 26.—"There will be no general strike," said General Ludlow this evening. "I have sufficient assurances to satisfy me on this point."

Civil Governor Rivera says the matter is out of his hands and entirely within the jurisdiction of the military authorities. To all intents and purposes the city is under martial law. The civil authorities will do their utmost to co-operate, and will do nothing to embarrass the Military Governor.

General Ludlow says that if it should be necessary he can find room

THE MAN OF TO-DAY.

Though Apparently Strong and Healthy He May Be in Imminent Danger.

We read of the sudden death of men apparently full of health and strength, and we are astounded. But were they healthy? No, though outwardly there was nothing the matter, and no symptoms appeared by which a doctor could discover their disease, there was, notwithstanding, a disease present, which silently and secretly was laying up poison which, when the exciting cause should come, would immediately flood the lungs with its deadly secretions and render them inert and useless, so that the man who had been apparently a tower of strength grew feeble as an infant, and, in spite of the efforts of the greatest doctors, slowly choked to death.

Medical writers will tell you that the victim of pneumonia is drowned in his own secretions.

But why were not these secretions carried off? Because the kidneys were unequal to the task and needed aid.

If business men, and men of affairs generally, when apparently in perfect health, could be induced to take precautions—how greatly would the number of widows and orphans be diminished in this fair land!

The remedy is so simply, so well known, so infallible.

To avoid pneumonia and Bright's disease and all other ills arising from diseased livers and kidneys, all that need be done is to take a directed, Warner's Safe Cure. It will cleanse, it will strengthen, it will feed these organs, so that they can do their work.

Autumn then, with its sudden changes of temperature, will have no terrors for us for colds cannot find lodgment in a healthy body, and as for the greater evils of which we have been speaking, this medicine is known to furnish perfect immunity from them, to all who take it faithfully according to directions.

at the presidio for 1,000 prisoners, and at Cabañas for as many more. Where all the rights of citizens are at stake, he considers that the existing military power should supersede any legal technicality.

CUBANS AWAITING SENTENCE.

Havana, Sept. 26.—The son of General Sanguily and the other young Cubans who recently invaded the Spanish clerks' club and hauled down the Spanish flag, have been arrested, and are now in jail awaiting sentence.

DEWEY HOME FUND.

MISS HELEN GOULD MAKES LIBERAL CONTRIBUTION.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.) Washington, D. C., Sept. 26.—Additional subscriptions to the Dewey Home Fund have been received by Assistant Secretary Vanderlip as follows:

Joseph Pulitzer, of New York, $1,000; Senator H. W. Corbett, of Oregon, $500; Senator James McMillan, of Michigan, $500; Hartley & Graham, of New York, $200; J. G. Schmidtmann, of Cincinnati, $500; E. S. Converse, Boston, Mass., $100; Whitelaw Reid, New York, $500; Chicago Firemen, $118; Chicago Police, $20, and a list of smaller amounts.

Total to date, $38,810.

MISS GOULD'S CONTRIBUTION.

New York, Sept. 26.—Miss Helen Gould has given $1,250 toward the Dewey Home Fund, of which $750 was sent to the committee at Washington and $500 to the New York committee.
